

A REAL CLIMAX Once in a person's life the feeling of dissatisfaction will suddenly creep in. That uncomfortable feeling that there's always something missing, like an itch that couldn't be scratched, is what bugged Kenny. A music arranger and instinctively creative, he was married to a gorgeous woman named Donna, who was a talented photographer. Their creativity bonded them completely to each but what gave the icing on Kenny's cake was Donna's unbelievable ability to profusely pleasure a man. Night after night, Kenny was the center of Donna's world and the gods of sexuality came over to get tutored by her. After a few months of extreme pleasure, the final shadow came. Kenny now felt they've done it all and the winter of dissatisfaction slowly inched into their hot, summer lives. What will he do? How can Kenny revive the excitement in his married life and how can he climb again the climax of happiness, which he was slowly sliding away from.

I'M YOURS Eden was a typical teenage girl who grew up in an unusual environment. Raised by a single mother, she was accustomed to frequent change of homes and the daily company of all sorts of men who were her mother's one-night escapades. Finally, after a long struggle with bad lovers and irritated landlords, Eden and her mother found Danny, an entrepreneur who loved them both. Though Eden wasn't ready to call Danny his "father," her interest was more into his sons, Peter and Kevin. Though both sons were handsome to her, she had a deeper feeling towards Peter. How will Eden deal with her emotions, knowing that her affection toward Peter isn't simple kin love, but a burning passion that resides within the deep recesses of forbidden desires?
