

This book addresses the practice of learning and teaching within higher education. Higher education is currently a sector challenged worldwide by increased numbers and diversity of students, tougher demands for professional accountability, increasing calls for educational relevance, thinning resources and the exacting demands of a global education market. This book brings together key issues of theory and practice to develop an overall professional language of teaching situated within communities of academic practice. This language provides teachers with a conceptual vocabulary and grammar for understanding and improving practice, enables them to critically reflect upon their teaching in a range of key genres
