

Summary Events spiral out of control in the magical, fast pace sequel to The Dauphnir Ring Leads to Mercy. ~ Raven ~ Iâ€™m not the same immortal guardian that I once was. I used to wear colorful clothes and laugh on a dime. Now, I wear black and a smile never crosses my lips unless Iâ€™m luring in my prey. I no longer care about Cylander Erickson and the team. I live for one purpose and one purpose only â€” destroy Greysonâ€™s killer. I vow they will suffer a thousand times over, before I end their sorry existence for taking what was mine! I have searched endlessly for close to a decade, and I am no closer to the truth than the day he died, but Iâ€™m too stubborn to quit. I barely sleep. Instead I use my magic to blue light across the globe stalking my unknown enemy, and executing death sentences along the way for anyone that even blinks at me wrong. The evil residue inside of me is growing at an exponential rate. There isnâ€™t a chance in Hell though that I will ever cave to their plea to join their side and conquer the planet. Iâ€™ll end my existence before I hunt the very thing I vowed to protect â€” humanity, but not until I fulfill my ultimate vow. Ravenâ€™s destiny will be forever changed as she bargains with the witch Maura to access the labyrinth gates of Hell to ascend what was taken so very long ago.
